

TREASURER- DIANE STERCHI

All records have been kept in accordance with prescribed account practices and an audit of the books has been prepared for 2010 and 2011 to date. The monthly books have been reviewed through August of 2011 and Federal and State Taxes will be filed in November. Financial statements are published in the final pages of this report.

The six essential leadership attributes: set high standards; live your standards and mentor those who follow; create and share a vision; make the hard choices when necessary; be visible and out front; and instill hope in those who follow.”
